and what hast thou to lose!

Ham-e parr-waa keya hai.*

Do not preach to me, O Preacher, about heaven and hell.
I am an obedient follower of Muhammad.
What else do I care!

5. MOULOOD CELEBRATION

One should know that Moullood celebration is held in almost all Muslim countries, Arab or non-Arab, especially in Mecca, Medina, and among the Ulimas and the learned of Turkey, Syria, India etc. For centuries all have approved and confirmed its worthiness and its practice without any doubt.

Thus it is considered a noble and pleasing act to Allah and His Prophet. It is useless to write further but to give quotation of authentic narration from the most reliable books of Hadith. Listen attentively, if anyone should be doubtful on the veracity of Moullood Shareef, after hearing the narration, he is expected to dispel such doubt at once.

Hafiz Akhair Shamsu-Din of Damascus, who had committed the Hadith to memory, has related: “When a kafar like Abu Lahab, a bitter enemy of Muhammad, would be given some relief from his punishment in token of the Prophet’s milaad celebration. Glory be to Allah, the luck of that person and ummat who relish the milad sharif in love of his Prophet and spend whatever he afford. Surely Allah would give him high reward in Heaven’s bliss. And wonderful blessings of Moullood shareef is that those who keep it, for a whole year they enjoy good health, popularity and Allah Ta’ala fulfils their hearty desires..

It is written in Fu-yoosul Hirmain of Hazrat Maulana Shah Wali Ullah Muhadas Deh-la-vi (peace be on him) that he (Hazrat Wali Ullah) was present in a milad celebration on the 12th. day of Rabi-ul-Auwal at a home in Mecca Shareef, birthplace of our last prophet, and at the time when Moullood recitations were in progress, suddenly they saw a flash of light appeared in the blessed gathering. When the people looked at it intently, they became aware that the light was due to the reflection of angels being present. Thus the presence of angels in Milad shareef of our Holy Prophet is proved.

Anyone who may doubt this fact or who refuses to hold such a celebration, he does a very evil act. May Allah save us from denying the veracity this truth for the sake of our beloved Prophet. Instead, it is necessary that all Muslims should listen whole heartedly to the beauties and good qualities of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be on him) and be determined to follow in his footstep, avoid evil habits and recite darood shareef slowly in low voices.

When thou hearest the name of Prophet Muhammad it is necessary to recite even as much: "Peace and blessings of Allah be with thee, O Prophet", if not a sin is committed. The Prophet has said: "He is the stingiest of man before whom my name is called and he does not recite darood shareef." Thus it is clear that darood shareef is appreciated as a very noble and pleasing duty by the Holy Prophet of Allah.

O Muslims! This is the fact for earnest consideration. It is incumbent upon you to observe this pleasant duty on every occasion as far as is possible to recite darood shareef with great reverence. Furthermore, in an a-yat of the Holy Qur'an Allah Himself commands: "Surely Allah and His angels recite Salutations for the Holy Prophet: O thou who believe! Send thou blessings and salute him with all respect."

(To stand up in reverence is also respect.)

6. AMINAH KI RAWAIYA

(AMINAH'S NARRATION)

(Translation only)

And from Aminah this is another narration.

When the pain of childbirth took me
I became conscious of my loneliness and was very scared of my condition.

I felt the need of the chaste daughters of Abu Munaf to be near to me.

O Allah Ta'ala! I prayed momentarily from this delicate position. Do Thou save me.

Then suddenly, what do I see at this unique moment but the appearance of many women.

Their beauty and loveliness i am unable to describe. Such nice women I saw nowhere.

Excellent were they in lustre and beauty, with red rosy cheeks and long black locks.

So many of them appeared that my entire house was filled with these beautiful women.

Then they started to tell me this band of beautiful ladies, Here are 'hurs' from heaven.

For the purpose of serving thee today.
Allah has sent us down from heaven.

We are here in thy service with all heart and soul. We pledge our lives for thy sake.
After this I heard a fearful shrieking voice ...
piercing the inner chambers of my ears.

Hearing the fearful voice I shuddered with fright. But soon after what do I see!...

That a cock appeared. It was extremely white, and around it glittered a hollow light.

That heavenly bird came forward to me,
and its bright feathers he rubbed upon me.

Then the fear from my heart disappeared.
I felt instead comfort and calmness.

There and then that same heavenly cock was transformed into a handsome young man.

He was charming and delicate in age and he was holding a bowl in his hand as a sage.

The bowl filled with clean and pure drink.
Its beauty and quality I cannot describe.

Whiter than milk it was and sweeter than the sweetest and purest honey.

In my hand the bowl he placed. Then the handsome young sage he said to me

Please drink from this bowl to thy fill....
I drank it all then he said take some more.

Take it and drink it to thy fill. I drank it all then he offered again some more.

Take thy time and drink it to thy fill.
please do not hesitate in drinking it in full.
When I drank out of that divine bowl then he brought his bright heavenly hand toward me.

With his purified hand he started to massage- like over my womb, And I heard him saying:

“Appear thou ‘O Mercy to all the nations’”.

“Appear thou ‘O Leader of all other Prophets’”.

“Appear thou ‘O Chief of all other Awli-yaas’”.

“Appear thou ‘O the Best of all men’”.

“Appear thou ‘O the Light of my eyes’”.

“Appear thou ‘O the Helper of the Aggrieved’”.

“Appear thou ‘O the Inheritor of Divine Light’”.

10. WHEN THE PROPHET WAS BORN

(Translation only)

When the last Prophet Muhammad was born he became known as the pride of the whole universe.

The light on that day was dazzling bright.
The whole universe was bright with light.

Everything was dazzling with light....
That even Mount Sinai was envious of the sacred birth.

Immediately there appeared four ladies.
They came down from heaven to the earth.

Aminah, seeing their wonderful dazzling beauty- That chaste lady took fright within her.

And she started to ask them: "O Ladies! Thou do not seem to be natives of Mecca. Who art thou."

Do not fear nor despair, they all comforted her Lovingly. Amongst, this one is Mother Eve.

This second lady is the mother of Isaac.
And the third lady is Hagar (Sarah), of high and noble gem.

And the fourth, this happy and lovely lady, among us, she is As-siyaa, the mother of Mazaham.

A dish of pearls was in the hands of Eve.
A bright silver cup in the hands of Sarah.

The silver cup was filled with the water of
'Kau-sar, with which to bathe the young King-Prophet.

Hagar had with her heavenly perfume, with

Which to scent the dress of Allaah's beloved.

A green bed-sheet 'As-siyaa had in her hands,.. With which to wrap in the Holy Prophet Muhammad.

A bath was given to the holy baby, then he was placed in the lap of his loving mother.

After this he (Muhammad) bowed into prostration. His wonderful prostration I cannot describe.

The Prophet was heard repeating "Rabbi habli Ummati", that is: "O God! Forgive my followers".

Said Allah: "O my beloved Prophet!
The great courage and determination which thou possess

By thy courage and determination...
O seal of the Prophets.
Thy followers shall be forgiven."

To the angels then the glorious Allaah,
the Creator of the heavens and the earth,
said:

"O my angels! Be witness to the fact that this
My much desired and obedient friend

Even immediately on the day of his birth,.. his People he did not forget in any form.

"How would he then forget his people on the Day of Resurrection...
this most beloved Prophet of Allah."

And this is another authentic information, that at the time when the Prophet was born

the Prophet went into prostration,.. then he raised his forefinger towards the heavens

with his forefinger towards the heavens, to Allaah he was making his most humble supplication

then a cloud from the heavens appeared, ... and it took the holy baby in it as lap away.
presence, and a voice from the unseen was heard saying thus:

“Take him (the holy baby: Muhammad) to the east and to the west, and show him all over the land and sea

So that everyone should know the last Prophet of Allaah, and know also his name and his mission.”

Suddenly the cloud with the holy baby Muhammad returned, after showing him all the places around.

When the cloud had disappeared then the most honourable holy baby Muhammad re-appeared

In a bright and beautiful heavenly garment, in it the holy and loving Prophet was dressed.

A voice from the unseen was heard announcing that now the Holy Prophet is declared

Muhammad’s mission for the whole world, and his leadership for all nations is established.

There are no being in existence nor anything left out, who shall not know of his mission.

Be it animal, be it jinn, be it human being, all are subject to the Holy Prophet’s message.

The excellences which Allaah bestowed on all other prophets individually prior to Muhammad

All these excellences Allaah bestowed them collectively unto the Holy Prophet Muhammad.

All the good virtues that were given individually to other prophets, Allaah gave all these virtues collectively to Muhammad.
